TAKING HOLIDAYS DURING TERM DETRIMENTAL TO STUDENT LEARNING

It is essential that students remain in school during term time to get the full benefit of teaching. It is detrimental to student learning where parents take a holiday during term, often because of cheap flights. I respectfully request that unless there are exceptional circumstances, that you do not take your children on holiday during term time.

God bless

Patrick Walsh
Principal

JPC 1ST 15 TRIP TO AUSTRALIA

During the school holidays a group of 29 boys from the 1st 15 travelled to the Gold Coast in Australia.

The boys got to experience all of what the Gold Coast had to offer visiting Wet'n'Wild, Dreamworld and Out Back Spectacular as well as some of the smaller attractions.

We had a very busy program with four tournament games. The games were very tough with some of the top school's in Australia attending the tournament in which our boys played in the highest division.

We had amazing weather so spent the little spare time we had shopping, playing touch on the beach and swimming. One of the highlights was seeing the team perform the new school haka in-front of all of the other tournament teams. The parents and teachers who attended the trip were all highly impressed with the behaviour of all boys and they did the school proud.

We would like to thank Mr Sinclair, Mr Housel, Shelly Taylor, Susan Swann-Eason, Louise Pepper and Glyn Eason for attending the trip and helping to make it a huge success.

We also want to thank all of the parents and supporters who helped to fundraise for the trip over the past year.

JPC 1st XI 1 vs WHHS 1st XI 2

JPC's hopes of winning the Rotorua secondary schools football competition look to have come to an end when the 1st XI lost narrowly to WHHS 1st XI on Wednesday. In a very close game, where the result could have gone either way, the visiting Heights team took their chances and scored two goals. The score was locked at 1 all until late in the second half after Damandeep Basra had scored a fine goal for JPC. The JPC team were right in the game and enjoyed long periods possession but were unable to capitalize and score the vital goals. Steff Riley was impressive for JPC after returning from two weeks injury break and Jack Tomblison tried hard all day and was unluckily denied a chance to equalize in the dying moments of the game when incorrectly called back for off side. The 1st teams last game of the year is against Lake High next week where they will look to finish the season on a positive note and as high up the competition ladder as possible.

NCEA Guide: Mobile App

To help parents and employers better understand NCEA, NZQA has developed an app designed for mobile devices - phones and tablets.

Called NCEA Guide, the app is for parents, whānau and employers and provides quick and easy access to key information about NCEA.

NCEA Guide includes key content about the structure of NCEA, how the qualification is used after studying, how credits work, and how endorsements are earned. Users can also choose to view the content in English or Te Reo. Importantly, parents and whānau can also get information about how they can support family members studying towards gaining their secondary school qualification.

For employers, content focusses on what they can expect to see when job candidates show them documents detailing their qualifications and what they have studied.

The NCEA Guide App is free to download from the Apple App Store and Google Play Store. Get it now:

ELECTRICITY SUPPLY APPRENTICE PROGRAMME

Applications for the Electricity Supply Apprentice Programme's 2015 intake are now open from 1 – 31 August 2014. The application forms for both mechanical and electrical apprenticeships are available to download from Mighty River Power, Vector, WEL Networks and Singer Group web pages. We have attached a copy if you are unable to access these sites. Please print out the form, complete all areas, include the required documents and post to the address at the top of the first page of the form.

There is also a brochure and short video clip to view on the web pages (links below) for further information on the programme.

<http://www.wel.co.nz/Meet-WEL-Networks/Careers/>

<http://vector.co.nz/apprentice-programme>

<http://www.singer.co.nz/employment/electricity-supply-apprentice-programme>

Criteria for consideration

Preferably NCEA Level 2 Maths and Level 1 English. We believe the apprentices will struggle with their theory work if they do not have a minimum of 18 credits in Level 2 Maths.

Location of Study

Wintec Rotokauri Campus, Hamilton

Accommodation

Our apprentices are currently housed during their block courses at the Wintec Eco Village on the Rotokauri Campus. There may need to be alternative arrangements made depending on numbers in the future. No charges to the students are incurred for the accommodation when in the village, however they will need to provide their own meals/food etc. at their own cost.

Duration/Dates

This is a three year apprenticeship; successful candidates for the next intake will commence approximately the last week in January 2015.

The first year apprentices attend 10 weeks of study then are placed "on the job" for approximately 10 weeks. They then return to Wintec for another 10 week block course before going out for on the job experience again.

Costs

We provide their personal protective equipment (i.e. safety boots & glasses etc.) and initial toolkit. We also cover their Wintec training fee and provide a scaled wage arrangement across the term of the programme.

ESAP staff will also be attending various Careers Expos around the North Island this month, so please pop in and chat to us if you require any further information.

NEW CAMPAIGN TO BOOST ENGINEERING STUDY AT POLYTECHNICS

A new government initiative to increase enrolments in engineering qualifications at New Zealand polytechnics was announced recently, a move that Bay of Plenty Polytechnic welcomes and supports.

Steven Joyce, Minister for Tertiary Education, Skills and Employment launched the Engineering – Education to Employment (E2E) initiative as a way to promote engineering careers, particularly by becoming qualified through an Institute of Technology or polytechnic.

“Unfortunately many people still think the only option for becoming an engineer is as a university graduate,” said Minister Joyce. While having more graduate professional engineers is very important, companies are telling us there is a real need for engineering technicians and technologists that have studied to diploma or degree level.

“Engineering makes a critical and exciting contribution to our society, and allows our industries to compete on the world stage. The challenge is that we need to be producing significantly more of them to meet industry demand today and in the future.”

Bay of Plenty Polytechnic’s range of civil, mechanical and electrical engineering programmes offer a strong practical aspect, ensuring graduates are better prepared for the workforce, as well as having an industry-recognised qualification that employers are looking for.

“It’s great the Minister is recognising that the NZDE programme is meeting the national need,” says Malcolm Hardy, Head of Applied Technology at Bay of Plenty Polytechnic.

“The majority of engineering companies don’t need a degree graduate, but rather a diploma graduate with technician skills. Schools need to realise their students will be better off if they complete the diploma and then go on to the degree if they want to; not only will they be better off financially and academically, but they’ll also be more employable in the industry.”

For more information on these engineering qualifications please click on:

Job outlook: <http://www.careers.govt.nz/jobs/engineering/mechanical-engineer/>

These qualifications also feature on the NZ immigration skill shortage list.

Students can get into the technicians qualifications based on solid year 12 results, but year 13 study is a distinct advantage. Calculus and Physics are handy subjects, but if they have good year 12 algebra and trigonometry, then we can bridge the math for them.
