Dear Parents/ Caregivers

Kia Ora, Malo e Lelei, Talofa, Greetings

SENIOR PRIZEGIVING Thursday November 6th: 7p.m, Edmund Rice Centre

Parents, caregivers and grandparents are cordially invited to attend our senior academic prizegiving, which recognises the outstanding academic achievements of our senior students. It is a wonderful opportunity to gather as a JPC community and celebrate all that has been achieved this year.

UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIPS

I am delighted to announce and congratulate Stanley Holt and Fintan Walsh, who have both been awarded prestigious, University of Auckland scholarships, worth $50,000, from a large field of applicants.

Congratulations also to Sandi Mahar who has been awarded a AUT $15,000 scholarship.

Congratulations to Ruiteng Liu who has a University of Victoria Vice-Chancellor Scholarship worth $20,000.

UNIVERSITY OF CANTERBURY BUSINESS AND LAW ESSAY COMPETITION

Congratulations to Fintan Walsh who won 2nd place in this national competition with an essay on Taxation. He won $200 plus $150 for the college.

SCHOOL THEME FOR 2015 "Through Adversity To The Stars" ('Per ardua ad astra')

The College theme for 2015 was selected because we want to emphasise to students next year that despite the hurdles and obstacles they may face, that with grit, determination and resilience they can work through them and achieve amazing things. Far too many students give up when they first encounter difficulties! Learning should be fun but it also involves sheer hard work and problem solving.

2015 STUDENT LEADERS

We congratulate the following students who were elected through a thorough and transparent process to represent JPC as student leaders in 2015.

Head Boy Arvin Pingol

Deputy Head Boy Matthew Goodall

Head Girl Rebecca Colby

Deputy Head Girl Rebecca Veitch

THANK YOU FROM THE JPC PTA

The PTA wishes to thank the JPC Community for Supporting our Art Exhibition on Sunday at the Lockwood Show Village.

A huge 'thank you' to Jo and Joanne La Grow from Lockwood for sponsoring this event.

We sold over 200 tickets and had a lovely afternoon (the rain holding off) and listening to Ellis Carrington, who performed beautifully, while we looked at the art in the show homes. The art remains on display and for sale until the end of December at the Lockwood Village, with 25% from sales donated back to the school.

Thank you to Jill Fleming for her generous donation of the two ketes.

JPC CELEBRATES ITS RICH CULTURAL DIVERSITY ON WEDNESDAY 5TH NOVEMBER

John Paul College is blessed with its rich tapestry of nationalities and cultures. Instead of causing division, it unites us and gives reason to celebrate. With this in mind, our school is to stage an International Flag Ceremony during Wednesday's assembly. This will involve parading 20 national flags which represent the home countries of our international students and the family heritages of many of our domestic students.

Flags displayed include those of the Philippines, Germany, Taiwan, Japan, China, France, Norway, South Africa, Korea, India, Sri Lanka, Fiji, Tokelau, Spain, England, Thailand, Vietnam, Zimbabwe, Tonga and Samoa.

During the Flag Ceremony each country's representative will also share what food tasters its stall will be offering at the International Food Festival, which will take place at JPC's main quad during lunch time on Wednesday 5th November.

Family and community involvement is encouraged so if you would like to join or contribute towards one of the group stalls or if you would like to find out more information, please speak to our International staff: Mike Dwight, Jacqui Hesketh or Necia Marriner. Otherwise our International Captains Ryota Sasao or Phoebe Liu could also help.

Last year our International Food Festival was a great success and this year we hope it will be even bigger and better. We hope it will be enjoyed as wholesome JPC community celebration – so everyone is welcome.

INTERNATIONAL FOOD FESTIVAL

Wednesday 5th November
1.20 pm – 2.00pm

Join us in celebrating the rich diversity of our many different countries and cultures within our school.
Friends and family welcome!

No need to bring samies for lunch!!
rather bring plenty small change.
Plenty of food samples to enjoy!!

OPC REBRAND PUTS SIR ED BACK IN THE SPOTLIGHT

The outdoor education centre named from our most famous explorer says it is putting the Hillary name back where it belongs.

From 1 October 2014, the Sir Edmund Hillary Outdoor Pursuits Centre of New Zealand - commonly known as the Outdoor Pursuits Centre or OPC as you know us – will be known as Hillary Outdoors.

“Sir Edmund Hillary was a huge supporter of our programmes and we worked closely with him for more than 30 years,” says Chief Executive, Graham Seatter. “But our full name was too cumbersome and over time, the Hillary name was dropped from our everyday brand.

“We wanted to return to a brand that honoured Sir Edmund and his incredible contribution to outdoor education.”

“The new name and logo now truly reflects the nature of Hillary Outdoors and its place in the hearts and lives of thousands of Kiwis over the last 40 years.”

The Hillary family also welcome the change with Sarah Hillary commenting "It is a great honour to have our family name associated with the organisation. My father fully supported the Outdoor Pursuit Centre from the start, through his relationship with his friend Graeme Dingle. Hillary Outdoors aims to challenge and empower people by getting them into the natural environment; their programs are very much in keeping with my father's philosophy on life."

10 boys and 10 girls from JPC Year 10, travelled away on the Sunday 12th October to a week of no TV, no iPod, no X box, no Cell phone and no computer. Up each morning about 6am, ready to face the great outdoors.

Students: Megan Auge. Issie Boyle. Thomas Bruere. Troy Cobb. Georgia Dent. Jack Elvy. Simeon Hansen. Fletcher Hodges. Mac Horne. Jemima Hurford. Zoe Le Lievre. Allie Morris. Treea Murphy. Rhys Prentice. Jason Quinlan. Brianna Richardson. Adam Schweizer. Claire Self. Georgia Williams. Kenta Yeoman.

Arrived Sunday night, dumped their gear into assigned chalets. Meet the other schools also participating that week.

Duty Manager then briefed them on the history of Hillary Outdoors. He covered conservation requirements around the camp, including the local environment. He explained it is impossible to eliminate the risks that are inherent in a changeable and unpredictable outdoor environment. The students were told all they can do is minimize the risk, by being cautious and taking the safe options was paramount. Instructions need to be obeyed and followed, also to look after each other.

The boys and girls activities varied over the week. Both groups did Caving, Bush Bash (Tramp), High ropes, climbed Mt Tongariro (Girls got the fine clear day, could see for miles. Boys got whiteout conditions, so had to rely on the compass.) The girls ended their stay with packing a Kayak, paddling 10km and camping the night, and returning next morning.

The students' participation in all activities was supported and encouraged by their peers and instructor to participate to a level which challenges them.

I'm hoping the students:

- are more confident
- are more likely to take on responsibilities at school and at home
- are more inclusive; they have seen and accepted their own and others' strengths
- have more positive relationships with their classmates, teachers and others
- participate and contribute more in the school and local community
- are more self-reliant
