John Paul College

John Paul College (JPC) is a top performing state-integrated Catholic school and caters for students from Year 7 to Year 13. It is a 'Lasallian school in the Catholic tradition' and is therefore linked to other faiths through its network of similar schools and universities around the world.

JPC's enrolment now exceeds 1,100 boys and girls – making it the largest co-educational Catholic School in New Zealand. It is widely respected for its many achievements of excellence in the academic, sporting and cultural spheres and its comprehensive systems of pastoral care and support, ensure that each individual student can flourish to his or her fullest potential.

The increasing international roll includes approximately 35 students from seven different countries. Successful applicants are usually prioritised over the school's considerable waiting list. All faiths and backgrounds are welcomed.
